It seems that with the passing of summer these same business houses could pick up teams for howling as is done in othe cities and keep up the in-terest in local sports during the winter.

How about it you maple splitters, is there any business house that bousts of a better bunch of bowlers than your next door neighbor? If you think you've got the best teams why not get the other fellows, and girls interested, and organize a City bowling learns an Insurance Men's losing league an Insurance Men's league.
